DEDICATION

There are many people over the years who have been responsible for the success of the camp. Some of these folks are well known; others, by the nature of their work, are behind the scenes individuals. Indeed, if they were campers they would receive the Unsung Heroes Award.

One such person was Norman Scott. He was hired in 1996 as the Camp Custodian, a position that in many respects is the key job in our organization. It not only involves work 7 days a week from April to November, but also requires a presence during the winter months to check on the camp and take appropriate actions as a result of snow or ice storms, vandalism, or other problems.

Norman was an excellent choice for the job. As the person responsible for the physical upkeep of our beautiful facility, he faced the often daunting tasks with expertise, calm determination, and wisdom gained from life’s experiences. He remained the camp custodian until 2004 and stayed on a few years thereafter to work with his son-in-law, John Fredette, whom he had groomed for his position.

Norman lived nearby in Cornish, Maine all his life, and with Joan, his wife of over 63 years, raised 6 children. He was a highly respected person in the area and a professional forester by trade; he also provided animal control services to surrounding communities. We first got to know him when he was hired to trap some wildlife on our property in the early 1990s.

Norman was more than an employee. He and Joan became our good friends and were part of the West End House Family.

In later years Norman would visit the camp at the end of the camping season. In the quiet afternoon hours of that Saturday after the campers had left and before the Old Timers arrived, he, Joan and their daughter, Donna, would spend a delightful few hours reminiscing about their years working at camp and would talk about family and friends. This was a special visit by a special person, one that we looked forward to every year.

The onset of cancer put an end to these visits in 2018; however, a phone call from him at the end of that summer was a welcome event. Norman faced his illness in the same manner he faced life - with courage and determination. He passed away in April 2019. Last summer, in the presence of the Scott Family, friends, staff and campers, a small tablet in Norman’s memory was placed on the Long Pond Association Memorial Plaque at camp. He will live on in the hearts and minds of all who knew and loved him.

It is with the greatest respect and admiration that the 2019 is dedicated to

NORMAN SCOTT

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR - BILL MARGOLIN

The summer of 2019 was one of the best summers in recent memory. The excellent staff, the innovative new programs, the quality campers, the weather, and the close Color War were all exceptional.

Steve Lepler again spends virtually every waking hour ensuring that each season is successful. He is tireless in his spirit, dedication and energy to make sure that West End House Camp is the very best among all camps. He spends the entire off season planning for the summer; at camp he is tireless in his efforts to ensure a smooth operation, and his manner is always upbeat and positive. As he begins to transition into a well-deserved retirement at the end of 2021, we all the more realize and appreciate the impact he has had on WEH Camp.

Ryan Wilensky, Director of Operations since 2007, plays an important role in the management of camp. His planning and dedication continue to have a constructive influence on the staff, campers, and programming. We are also grateful for his efforts to publish the Spirit each year. I am always amazed that Ryan creates the time to accomplish all the tasks he has year round.

Josh Daigle, in his 5th year as Assistant Director of Operations, continues to be a key person in the operation of the camp. His presence, especially during the evening hours, is vitally important and truly appreciated, as is his showing of “Daigle TV” during the summer.

Special thanks to Allan Jacobs, Waterfront Director, whose commitment to the safety and education of the campers is a comfort to parents and administrators alike. His warm, compassionate, and enthusiastic personality endears him to all of us. He is always willing to lend a helping hand.

The addition of Steve Dushan to the staff was an important aspect of the summer. Steve helped in so many ways, especially in transporting campers to games, appointments, etc.

Under the expert care of Property Managers, John Fredette and Steve Chamberlain, our facility remains in excellent shape. They are amazing and very talented people who are key players in the operation of WEH Camp. We are so very fortunate to have them.

Thanks to our three cooks - Jose, Derek, and Leo – for supplying us with great meals and always pitching in for any special events or situations.

Natasha Williamson, our Registered Nurse on duty, was a gem of a person and a great professional. She maintained an excellent Health Center. She is a caring and highly competent individual whom we are looking forward to welcoming back for next summer.

Thanks to Ellen Collard for her work as the first director of the Margolin Center. Her care and concern for the campers was sincere and she kept the Center open during campers’ elective time so they could come in and play chess, legos, cards, or just talk. Her husband, Scott, volunteered during the summer to give art lessons to interested campers.

Ramie Lepler, as always, was ready and willing to lend a helping hand, especially when it came to driving the boat or taking pictures. Thank you, Ramie, for all that you do for us.

To my wife, Bryna, whom I consider the Unsung Hero of WEH Camp: I couldn’t do it without you. Thank you for being there for the WEH Camp and for me.

Finally, I want to express my gratitude to Jeff Kublin, President of West End House Camp and to all the members of the Board of Directors for their support. They are a unique and talented group of people whose unselfish efforts keep West End House Camp one of the top facilities of its type in the country. I am especially grateful to the Board of Directors and the Camp Alumni for their help in creating the Margolin Center. Special thanks to Jeff Kublin, Henry Barr, Skip Stearns, John Parker and Steve Lepler for ensuring the success of the official dedication of the facility on August 23, 2019.

Don’t forget to check out our fantastic website and to tell your friends about us. We continue to attract many new campers through word of mouth, so if you know a good candidate who might like to join us next summer, we welcome your referral.

In the meantime, stay well, study hard, and take care. Please do not hesitate to contact us (617- 783-2267) if we can assist in any way.
MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR – STEVE LEPLER

The West End House Camp 2019 season has been over for more than 2 months as I sit down on the first of November to put together this message. When I left camp at the end of August, I felt it was a terrific summer at West End House Camp! Now I am even more sure of it! Highlights included a large and excellent staff- all but one former campers! 80 rookie campers came on board! 43 eight weekers were members of our Elite Eight! 25 campers stayed longer than they were originally scheduled! 18 people joined our Five Year Club and 4 staff members were inducted into the Ten Year Club. Our World Cup was more fun than ever! Congratulations England who eked out a victory over Brazil! Desert War between Turquoise (Storm) and Hot Pink (Tropic) was spirited and exciting. After a valiant comeback by Tropic, Storm won by capturing the last few rounds of Capture the Flag! Color War saw another amazing comeback. Blue Heist was down by 90 points with just over a day left. They came back to tie White Showtime going into Song Night! White squeaked by with a 101-99 Song Night margin. So White Showtime won by 2 points, one of the closest Color Wars ever! The debut of ESPN Night was a smashing success! There was frequent use of the new and beautiful Margolin Center, honoring Bill for his 60 plus years of helping boys at West End House Camp! Also, there was new plush blue carpeting on the H-Dock and at other spots at camp.

Our 2019 staff met our high expectations! One major theme for the staff during training and throughout the season was related to the following question: “What are the 3 most important things that you have gained by being a camper and/or counselor at WEHC that you would want to share with and inspire in your campers?” This set the tone for our counselors taking the best of their own experiences and working hard to pass it on to their crews.

We are very fortunate that our Directors are leaders who are all former campers and counselors. I know that I have tried to take the best of what camp offered me and make it even better. I know my colleagues are with me on this. We all love West End House Camp and will do whatever is needed to make sure that the campers feel the same.

Ryan Wilensky, our Director of Operations, continues to be invaluable and has increased his involvement and role in and out of season. Ryan accomplishes so much and cares deeply about the past, present, and future of West End House Camp. Having his kids Whitney, Wesley, and Wade, and wife Rachel around camp much of the time adds to the family feel of the place.

Bill Margolin, our Executive Director, is a living legend. No one has a bad word to say about him, a rare accomplishment in this day and age. West End House Camp would not be what it is today without Bill’s efforts and commitment over the past 6 decades. He still helps the camp in so many ways. His tireless wife, Bryna, is not only committed to Bill, but also to the camp each and every day!

Josh Daigle, Assistant Director of Operations, has also done more and more each year to make the camp successful. He is an extremely valuable member of our leadership team, now and in the future. He makes sure that the evenings and nights go smoothly for campers, staff, and the camp in general. Josh is also a major asset in our marketing, recruitment, retention, and communication efforts. Josh’s wife Brianne and their daughters Harper and Nora make West End House Camp a better place to be!

Allan Jacobs stepped up to become our full season Waterfront Director. Safety at the waterfront (and at camp in general) is our number one priority. Allan did a magnificent job on this! Allan also spruced up the waterfront with some new additions and new ideas. His emphasis on teaching lifelong skills benefitted the campers in many ways! We are very thankful to have him as part of our leadership team.

Thanks also go out to long time camper and counselor, Steve Dushan, who served as a Special Assistant for the entire summer. Steve helped as a liaison to our Health Center, with overall quality control, with our biking program, and also at the waterfront. He was ready, willing, and eager to do anything!

A special thank you goes out to Natasha Williamson, our excellent Health Care Supervisor! In the first of what will be many years with us, Tasha gave all the campers, staff, directors, and parents a comfort level about the health and safety of all. It was a pleasure having her husband Christian, daughters Madison and Reagan, and 6 year old 8 week camper Jackson as part of the WEHC family as well!

I am also very grateful to have such a supportive, patient, and helpful wife, Ramie. She volunteers her afternoons to drive the Malibu for waterskiing when she is there. She missed a couple of weeks this summer to visit our new granddaughter in Hong Kong, but that was a pretty good excuse.

We are very much looking forward to the upcoming 2020 season, which will be the best one yet! We truly hope that you are with us again for a longer period of time. Thanks in advance for helping us spread the word to people in your circles. You are our best ambassadors; we need your help! Tell people to enjoy our website www.westendhousecamp.org and to contact me, Josh, or Ryan.

Best regards to you and your family, Steve
MESSAGE FROM THE OPERATIONS DIRECTOR – RYAN WILENSKY

There were several great memories from this summer that made me gleam with happiness during the 111th season of WEHC. Probably the 1st one was when our guys won the House Game easily and with class even though our opponent was making a mockery of the game towards the end.

- I will remember the enthusiasm of a great Desert War and Joseph “Mr. Clutch” Roopan catching a Frisbee during Capture the Flag that seemed to hang in the air for 10 minutes for the “Storm.”
- I will remember the utter joy of Remijio Wani, as he came out of a van to re-emerge from being away for 2 weeks. I wish I had taken a picture of the happiness on his face. What a great new camper!
- I will remember an awesome, close Color War. Great comeback by the Heist, but the jubilation of the Showtime after announcing the final score will never leave in my mind.
- I will remember ESPN Night. Nothing makes me happier at camp than when the counselors come up with an idea, get everyone excited for it, and make a great new activity that the kids love.
- I remember the sadness of G1 as they got more “HOWEVERS” from Bill Margolin during Auction Part 2 than I think he has ever given.
- I will remember the “Ry Guys” league team having a lot of fun, getting special treatment and losing a tough semi-final game to the “Stevie Leps” with Ryan Torres having a run for the ages. We were more than a team, we were a way of life with a logo, shirts, chartered van etc.
- I will remember the sequel to the Raymond Wu/Tug of War picture 10 years later. Hysterical.
- For personal reasons, I will remember watching Whitney walking back from Kennard’s while at the Girl’s Camp and how proud I am that there is a 2nd generation West Ender in our family. And for Wes and Wade, I may have lost our annual wrestling match, but I am going to start to train for next summer when I get home after my plan of bringing in a weapon (toy screwdriver), backfired.

So many people to thank and I have to start with Rachel. Packing up our family in late June is my least favorite day of the year as it’s the last day of school as well. And thanks for being a far better recruiter than I have been with the addition of Langston Puller.

- Thanks to Bill as always for being my summer time dad for 25 summers. I have learned so much about this place and life from Bill including the Funtown speech, how we shouldn’t have “camper pets” and how to deliver bad news via a well-placed “HOWEVER.”
- Thanks to Steve for giving me the creative liberty to do my thing, even if some of my ideas are bizarre. It has been great working with and learning from Steve the last 12 years and I hope we can do it for a few more.
- Thanks to John and Steve keeping our camp looking great and for fixing all of our mistakes.
- Thanks to Allan, Ellen, Tasha and Steve D for working with the kids every day and teaching them many skills and life lessons. Thanks to Bryna for doing everything behind the scenes and getting little recognition.

As for the staff, I have to start with Drew Seifer. Seifer was our Night Activity guy and made sure all the night activities ran smoothly with careful planning. It was nice to see his face at the end of the summer as it was buried in ungroomed scruff for 8 weeks.

Camp is only as good as the staff and this group of Senior Counselors stepped up into new roles. Thanks to Marc-Andy for being one of our very best bunk counselors, always with the kids. Thanks to Aidan Connelly for being probably our most creative staff (see White Showtime shirts). Thanks to Brandon Buckman on his excellent choice of colleges and for being a great, quiet leader and an outstanding coach. Thanks to Kyle Gagne, who adds a ton of personality to any activity and his babysitting skills. Thanks to Joe Connelly, who never loses and who ran a great Intermediate Leagues. Thanks to Ben Keller, for making weird announcements and being our key guy at the Waterfront. Thanks to RayWu for his reliability, spirit and excellent tug of war pics. Thanks to Sean Karass for winning his first CW game and for running Senior and Junior Leagues. Thanks to Jeremy Freed, for being hysteric and for disproving the “Dunks water” myth. Thanks to Tim Chu, who is one of the best bunk counselors of all-time and probably the most liked member of the staff. Thanks to KWu, for being a reliable, hardworking and thoughtful counselor. Thanks to Jordan Leppo, for making his grand return to D-Shift and helping out with Color War. He loves running the Apache Relay. Thanks to Juan for all the pictures he takes and for being such a kind soul. Thanks to Max Brody, who I was pumped to get back, for making me laugh with his funny takes. I am still giggling over his “Spirit of the House Award” rant he went on, “I’m not sure that kid would say YEHHH CAMP.” Thanks to Ben Kaplan for being a terrific 15U coach and CW coach without arguing, like many immature coaches do. Finally, thanks to Langston Puller, for being a great addition to the staff and our trusted boat driver. So, that’s it. 111 in the books.

See you for… West End 112 - “Another great year will be added to the shelf.” --RyGuy
MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT OPERATIONS DIRECTOR

The holidays are approaching as I sit down to write this message for The Spirit. The warmth of the summer sun has been replaced with the warmth of a fire. Months have gone by since the buses pulled out of West End House Camp for the last time, yet I find camp is on my mind every day. I’m sure that’s true for many of us.

Summer 2019 was the safest and healthiest year I can remember in my time at WEHC. It cannot be said how great of an addition Natasha Williamson, our Health Care Supervisor, was to our administrative team. Her organization, perseverance, and work ethic were certainly put on display last summer. With the help of Allan Jacobs at the helm down at the waterfront, and Steve Dushan assisting with the waterfront and medical side, I’ve never been more proud of how well everyone worked together this past summer. Our waterfront staff was top notch, and our waterfront program ran, in my opinion, the best I have ever seen it. Again, thank you Allan.

With so much activity and excitement packed into every day at camp, it can be difficult to notice the hard work that goes on behind the scenes. RyGuy, I mean Ryan, puts in hours before our day at camp begins, and hours after his day at camp is over, to ensure West End is running like a well-oiled machine. Ryan is a friend to all, and we are so fortunate to have him and his family with us every summer.

I don’t think there is a better duo in camp leadership than that of our own Bill Margolin and Steve Lepler. These two live and breathe West End House Camp. Even after 60 plus years at camp, Bill is still mentoring youth, and beating us at chess! Thank you Bill for your support of my goals and your help during the summer.

Steve Lepler is the one person working days, nights, weekends, holidays, summer, winter...you get the idea. Approaching my sixth year since returning to camp, I have begun to understand the undertaking it is to keep West End House Camp running at its peak potential, and moving forward. Steve navigates this process with ease. I also would like to thank him, Bill, Ryan, and our incredible Board of Directors for supporting my family and me. We truly feel ‘home’ when we are at WEHC.

To the staff, both veteran and rookie, I can’t wait to see what you guys bring to the table next summer, our 112th. I know I’ll be bringing hot sauce… (bad joke) But seriously, you guys are the glue that holds this whole thing together. Without the motivation, passion, and PATIENCE of our counselors, we wouldn’t be able to operate. It’s simple.

Campers, you are last here, but certainly not least. You are why we do what we do. You are part of the experience that makes lifetime memories for hundreds of us every year. You unplug from technology, society, and friends back home to escape with your brothers at West End for a summer camp experience you won’t find anywhere else. You are all awesome!

Thank you all, and I cannot wait to see everyone back in Parsonsfield, Maine this summer to do it again!

WATERMELON LEAGUE

Although there have been a lot of new activities added at West End House Camp in recent years, one of the favorites for many is still Watermelon League, which was introduced in 1959 by former Counselor and Program Director, Bobby Gordon, who sadly passed away in 2018. This weekly event, WEHC’s unique brand of softball, with all campers and staff playing 2 inning games, produced many memorable moments. The teams are led by our Senior Counselors, an honor they look forward to for years as they move up the ladder. However, campers play the most important positions and are almost always the determining factors to success. Watermelon League gives campers of different ages the opportunity to have fun while working together towards a common goal. The staff members enjoy playing and showing their skills and leadership qualities. Another great tradition is that all relatives are placed on the same team. The team that wins the playoffs at the end of the season gets to share a watermelon!

The Watermelon standings after the 7 game regular season were as follows:

After Color War, there was an 8-team playoff consisting of sequential 1-inning games. As can be seen in the standings, there were a couple of elite teams and a logjam in the middle. In years past, we have had playoffs in which the seedings held true to form, with the finals pitting the 2 top teams from the regular season. However, this year there were upsets and surprises galore! In the finals it was 2 middle of the pack regular season teams who peaked at the right time: Keller vs. Daigle/Seifer. The championship game on the Big Diamond saw the Kellers take a sizable lead in the top of the inning, scoring 5 runs. The Daigle/Seifer squad did its best to come back, but only managed to plate 4. The Kellers celebrated on the field after the game and at the dining hall when they savored their watermelon on the last night of camp. Both teams in the finals, and all teams in general, showed great effort, spirit, and sportsmanship, all traditional West End House Camp traits!

Join us and be part of the fun in 2020! Watermelon League is always special!
Intercamp Sports Report 2019
by Ryan Wilensky

Again, we finished barely under a 500 record after a promising start to the season. Our 15U Basketball team regained its throne as the winners of the House Game, which was frankly, a blowout. Then it lost in the finals of the Robin Hood tournament. We did a wide variety of intercamp competition this past summer, including some of the memorable games/tournaments below.

15 – Under House Game – Ryan Torres was incredible driving the ball and shooting and Jaidin Russell did not let Robin Hood get anything easy down low in a huge 54-30 victory. We could have won by way more, but Coach Kaplan and Yas did the right thing and called off the dogs in the 4th quarter.

12 and 15U Archery – Max Andelman and Owen Dunker did the best for our crew at the annual O-AT-KA tournament.

12 – Under Dodgeball – Probably the most fun tournament of the summer. We made it to the finals again this year, but could not beat Wigwam Red team. Matty Vogel led his 3B gang all day.

13 – Under Flag Football – Again, we made the finals and again we lost to the host Robin Hood. Great job coaching by Brandon Buckman as I didn’t think this team had enough to win it all, but they came close. Julian Badger, Bailey Belony and Jackson Magee played well for us.

15- Under Indoor soccer – We tried this new tournament, which was played in a street hockey rink. Our guys had a blast, but were not used to playing in such a small venue. Should be fun again next year.

15 – Under House Game 2 – we lost to the 2018-2019 Golden State Warriors. WOW, Winaukee was good. I am still waiting for them to miss a shot.

16 – Under 2 on 2 hoops – We own this tournament like Team USA Basketball owns the Olympics. Five years now and we have not lost yet. This year our B squad of Nasir and CP won the tournament, derailing counselors Griffin Yas + Josh Wolf along the way. This should be called the West End invitational at this point.

11 – Under Wakeup Warriors – Led by coach Wilensky, this feisty group of juniors went against WEHC trying to get the entire camp up for breakfast with unusual tactics such as playing annoying songs like “Pancake Robot, Barbie Girl and Gummy Bear” at full volume, while yelling and clapping at first bell on Fun Town day. The team easily took down most of camp. However, (TM Margolin), IBunker was smart enough to lock their doors and avoid defeat and G1 used security guard Corey Perkins to thwart off our attempt. MVP of the team was Tyler “the fearless” Hahn and Outstanding Sportsman was Cooper Fitzpatrick. This group was very popular and had the camp cheering for them in the Mess Hall for all their hard work and perseverance.

Thanks again to all of the coaches for their planning, preparation and enthusiasm. The passion of our coaches makes intercamp fun and competitive. Special thanks go out to the 15-Under Basketball coaches, Ben Kaplan and Griffin Yas, who got us back on the board in the House Game after a tough loss a year ago. Next year our 15U squad should be led by veteran Ryan Torres again, Myles DePina, Remi Wani, Riley Bloch, Liam Grabie, Ben Grabie, Julian Badger, Jackson Magee, Michael Colon and Harry Rubin. I think they could be sneaky awesome.

Final Intercamp Record: 14 Wins 16 Losses 0 Tied
SPELLING BEE

On Thursday, July 11, 2019 West End House Camp competed in the 15th Annual Maine Summer Camps Spelling Bee in Portland. A total of about ten different camps participated, with some of them fielding 2-3 teams in each age division. WEH Camp was represented in the 12-and-under division by veterans Ryder Beaulac and Jack Goldberg, who were joined by newcomers Zach Andelman, Jacob Dancey, and Ace Eagerman. Ryder Beaulac got a perfect score in the team competition and became eligible for the individual contest losing out, however, to the strong competition.

The Senior Group (13-15-year-olds) consisted of Harry Rubin, Bailey Beloney, Aaron Weisberg, and James Kagoda. They also performed well but not well enough to advance in either the team or individual competitions. Our gratitude to Chris Victorin for helping to chaperon and monitor the spelling words, and to Bryna for driving the van.

The afternoon was capped off by the annual trip to Dairy Queen, where Bill Margolin indulged in his customary blizzard ice cream.

We are looking for spellers for next year in both age groups and look forward to competing again in Portland, Maine next July.

Congratulations and thanks to all the participants for their efforts. They were great representatives of West End House Camp.

CHESS TOURNAMENT

The Second Annual Maine Summer Camps Chess Tournament was held at West End House Camp on Thursday, July 25, 2019. The following camps participated: Camp Netop, Camp Wigwam, Camp Agawam, Maine Teen Camp, Wildberry Farm Camp, Indian Acres, Forest Acres, Camp Wildwood, West End House Girls Camp and West End House Camp. There were two age divisions, 12 and Under and 15 and Under, with a maximum of two players from each camp in each division. The all-day event, sponsored by Bangor Savings Bank, was held in our Dining Hall.

Thanks to Cornish Bank Manager, Teresa Drown, for arranging sponsorship.

West End House participants performed well with Lee Perryman and Ross Israel playing for the Junior Division; Nikita Zakhvatov, Ori Kohl, Matthew Huang and Reagan Tibbels (from the West End House Girls Camp) representing the Senior Division. Trophies were presented to first and second place winners, all of whom were from Camp Wildwood. They should be the camp to beat next summer.

Deepest gratitude to Ryan Wilensky, Allan Jacobs, and Steve Lepler for their help. Special thanks to Ron Hall, from Maine Summer Camps, for publicizing this event and to Karl Block from Camp Netop for his invaluable help that day.

The Third Annual Chess Tournament will be held on July 30, 2020 at West End House Camp. Please see Bill Margolin if you are interested in competing.
Junior and Senior League Report
By Sean Karass

This year's Junior and Senior Leagues went as smoothly as ever. The leagues saw many competitive games as the energy and intensity was prevalent each and every game. For the Juniors, our themes for each session included Premier Lacrosse league teams, Worst Desert War teams, and Military themed Color War teams. In the first two weeks, Josh Wolf’s "Chrome" took home the Championship led by players Ryder Beaulac and Josiah Bowen. In the second two weeks, once again it was Josh Wolf’s team, “Day,” that was victorious with campers Quinn Connors, Ryder Beaulac, Jack Goldberg and Zack Wynn. In the last 4 weeks, Nick Silva was victorious with his team, “Militia,” led by Josh Mawanda, Derek Jones, and Zack Wynn. These teams may have won, but there were plenty of competitive games and talented athletes on the other teams.

This year’s Senior League had an outrageously talented Gottlieb and G1 to pull from with a very hard working and competitive 1A and 1B as well. The themes included AAF teams, Camp Directors Nicknames, and places in town where you can save money. In the first two weeks, the Hotshots, captained by Carl Headges and Mike Sudkin, were victorious with help from Ben Grabie and Abbas Ngoboko. In the second two weeks, Carl Headges was victorious again, capturing the “Daigle Dudes” with HSC Brandon Goldberg. Their team included Dom Delgado, Abbas Ngoboko, and Nate Pillis, among others. In the last four weeks, Carl Headges again led his "Family Dollars" crew to the championship. Ben Shocket, Liam Grabie, Remijo Wani, and Jonah Bloch also played a big role. It should be noted that Carl Headges captained his team to the championship every time this year. He is a super athletic and has skill unmatched in most sports. Teams worked so hard to beat him, but none were able to because of his strong leadership qualities and the teamwork that he inspired.

The Junior League coaches included Josh Wolf, Nick Silva, Lucas Maley, Bennett Maley, Chris Victorin (first four) and Tim Beinborn (first four). These CITs did a fantastic job and not only coached but mentored these boys and set an example of leadership and behavior for everyone. There is no doubt in my mind they will make excellent senior staff in the future. The Senior League Captains included Corey Perkins, Jaidin Russell, Carl Headges, Brandon Goldberg, Zylas Abney, Ben Shocket, Mike Sudkin, and Ryan Torres. This may seem like too many captains, but I think it really speaks to the depth, talent, and leadership of Gottlieb and G1 this year. I had the privilege of coaching several of them as a CIT in 2016, and watching them grow has been a pleasure. This truly is a special group of young men and will do an excellent job on staff at camp in the near future.

I would first like to thank all of the land staff for refereeing every day with unparalleled amounts of energy and enthusiasm. Refereeing is a thankless job, but it is because of the staff that the Leagues went as well as it did this year. Joe Connolly deserves a special thank you for doing a great job as the Intermediate League Commissioner and being so easy to work with. Additionally, I would like to thank Ryan Wilensky for always making sure the games were going smoothly. It was a pleasure to be a commissioner for these groups, and without Ryan, this job would have been much more difficult. I wish the best of luck to all of these campers next season, whether they are the leaders of their respective league or advancing to a higher league. I enjoyed working with all of them and hope they come back to make 2020 just as special!
Intermediate League Report
by Joe Connelly

The Intermediate League was very spirited and competitive with any team having a good chance to win it all. The first session was very close with each team having about 3 to 4 stars that can take over a game at any point. The theme for the names for each team in the first session was Division 4 US Professional Soccer Teams. There were the Ocean City Nor’easters, the Boston Bolts, the Tri-Cities Otters, and the Lakeland Tropics. The oldest campers coached the Intermediates for the first two sessions: Brandon Goldberg, Mike Sudkin, Corey Perkins, and Jaidin Russell. The Ocean City Nor’easters, coached by Brandon Goldberg, made a comeback later on in the session led by Jackson Magee and Hunter Beaulac. The Boston Bolts, coached by Mike Sudkin, were a powerhouse throughout the first two weeks led by Julian Badger and Spencer Parco, however, they fell short in the first round of the playoffs. The team that went on to win it all the first two weeks was the Nor’easters in an epic volleyball game that went back and forth. Eventually the Nor’easters won 2 games to 1.

In the second session, it seemed that competition only increased. The theme for the second two weeks was unusual basketball shoe brands. There were the Antas, coached by Brandon Goldberg; the 361s, coached by Corey Perkins; the Peaks, coached by Jaidin Russell; and the Li-Nings, coached by Mike Sudkin. With first time camper Owen Wheeler coming in and immediately being a presence on the fields and courts, you just never knew who was going to win day in and day out. The 361s had taken a commanding lead in the standings and it seemed they would take it all. When the playoffs rolled around after Desert War, the Peaks upset the 361s and the Li-Nings lost a close game to the Antas. The Antas, who were in last place the entire session, went on a run in the end to secure Route 160 Ice Cream and win the league championship!

For the last session, two coaches were switched out to keep things fresh. The theme was Game of Thrones Houses, there were the Starks, coached by Jaidin Russell; The Targaryens, coached by Zylas Abney; the Lannisters, coached by Carl Headges; and finally the Baratheons, coached by Brandon Goldberg. The Starks, led by all-star Matty Vogel, seemed to never lose a game. Matty seemed to shine in every single game, as the campers were getting ready for Color War. Everybody was trying their hardest, making the Intermediate League enjoyable. Midway through the last session, Julian Badger came back to camp for Color War and everyone wanted him on his team. When he came back, he immediately started to dominate again, even when he joined the last place Targaryens. The Targaryens, led by Julian, stormed through the competition and ended up winning the championship basketball game with ease.

The Intermediate League was full of fun, friendly competition. I think it was the most interesting of the three leagues. Any team had the chance to win and, this ensured that everyone was trying his hardest to get the championship.

WEHC FIVE AND TEN YEAR CLUBS

As we began our second century in the summer of 2009, we were proud to unveil two new plaques that are prominently displayed in the dining hall. The goal is to recognize and honor campers and staff who have been at WEHC for five years and for ten years. We hold an induction ceremony on Visiting Day. These committed individuals have been, and will continue to be, a huge part of our success. They will proudly show their families now and in the future that they are members of a special and exclusive club. The 2019 inductees are in bold. Congratulations and thanks to all the West Enders who are listed below.

The “Night Activity Challenge” is an annual event that takes place before the campers arrive. Our staff members have to come up with a new, creative night activity each year. This year it happened on the Saturday morning before camp started. The challenge has led to 14 great night activities in the last 8 years (Inferno, West Endo, Murder Mystery, Domination, Walking Dead, Trifecta, Lava, Karasik Park, Safe Guard, Escape Room, Hot Takes, March Madness and Pokémon Go, and Junior Science Lab). This year, the winning group (Griffin Yas, Josh Wolf, Kyle Gagne, Brandon Buckman and Liam Ross) described “ESPN Night,” an almost mini Color War evening activity on the volleyball court and in the rec hall. Camp was split into 2 groups, the Ballerz and the Ringers, and they played each other in a bunch of random events. Griffin Yas and his crew made teams, got everyone hyped and did post-game interviews, etc. It was a ton of fun.

Thanks to all of the staff for running great night activities this summer such as Gold Rush, Gladiators, and Prize or Consequence. I would like to thank Drew Seifer for organizing the Night Activities and for making sure they all ran smoothly.

ESPN Night
by Griffin Yas

Overview

When creating ESPN Night during the make your own night activity challenge, our group wanted to create an activity that the kids could really get into, and become a staple at West End for years to come. With this in mind, we created ESPN Night. This night activity is basically color war, however simplified and much smaller. It’s designed to emulate the same intensity and competitiveness, however, all within a single night. The activity consists of 6 sports; each sport is played by one division (bunk), and watched by the entire camp. This way, the oldest kids in camp watched the youngest and got really into it by cheering them on and coaching them. The sports went as follow: Juniors (5’s) competed in miscellaneous relays on the outdoor basketball court, Intermediates (2’s) played Newcomb, the Low Seniors (3’s) played a game of watermelon Wiffleball on the outdoor basketball court as well, and the Seniors (4’s) played a game of mini hoop basketball. Then, when it got dark out and to intensify the activity, we transitioned inside the rec hall and the mid-seniors (1’s) played dodgeball, and the high-seniors (Gott. & G1) played basketball. Each event from the juniors up to the seniors who was worth 50 points, then the mid-senior game was worth 75, and the high seniors worth 100. The two teams were named after the teams from blacktop of the popular video game, NBA 2K. Therefore, the Ballerz (wearing dark) played the Ringers (wearing white). During the entire activity there were play-by-play commentators, post-game interviews, and tons of videos/pictures taken to make it seem like the kids really were on TV.

Results

The activity this year was a huge success. The kids and staff really bought into the activity and made it even more fun. As Ryan continues to comment on the activity, “It was a C+ idea, but executed at an A+ level.” The night started with small coach’s entrances, just like the start of color war. For the Ballerz, coaches Dutch Senft, Marc-Andy Mexil, and Nick Silva entered from the council ring to meet their team. On the other side, Ringers coaches, Langston Puller, Cole Lepler, and Eli Champoux entered from the tennis court. Both teams went to the volleyball court to await the first event, miscellaneous relays. The relays were best 2 out of 3. Anchored by Zack Wynn, the Ballerz picked up the first 50 points and the crowd went wild. During the transition to Newcomb, Jackson
Williamson was interviewed. In Newcomb, it was rally scoring to 7. The Ballerz picked up another win, led by Ryder Beaulac, making the score of ESPN Night 100-0 Ballerz. During the transition to watermelon-style wiffleball, Ringers player Leeon Perryman was interviewed and gave words of encouragement to his losing team. Watermelon-style wiffleball was most likely the first time in the history of West End that wiffleball was not played in the council ring. The game went well, and the solid squad of the Ballerz proved to be too much for the Ringers. That made the score of ESPN Night 150-0 Ballerz, however, the war was not over. During the transition to mini-hoop basketball, Spencer Hertz for the Ballerz was interviewed. In mini-hoop, the Ringers mounted their comeback. Josh Wotton of the Ringers was clutch, hitting 2 three pointers and giving the Ringers their first points of the night, and making the score of ESPN Night 150-50 Ballerz. He was interviewed during the transition to dodgeball. Dodgeball may have been the most intense game of the night. If won by the Ballerz, the activity would already have been won. During the 5-minute game, players on each team were picked off one by one, until only 2 players for each team were left standing. When the buzzer indicating the end of the game sounded, the refs decided that each team would designate one player left standing for a final sudden death one on one. For the Ringers, Ben Grabie came to the line, opposing the Ballerz Sam Delaney. Ben picked up the ball first and hit Sam, winning the game for his team. That hit made the score of ESPN Night 150-125 Ballerz. Being that the final game was worth 100, the winner of the high Senior basketball game would win the whole activity. Ben was interviewed during the transition to the final game. In basketball, two halves were played, but regulation time was not enough as the game was tied and went to overtime. The Ballerz took a 11-9 lead with just seconds left in the game. Corey Perkins got an open look from 3, but the shot went in and out. With that win, the Ballerz won the inaugural ESPN Night, 250-125.

Closing

I would like to give a huge shout-out to the commentators Max Brody, Ben Kaplan, and Kyle Gagne; the interviewers Jonathan Kraus, Joe Connelly, and Brandon Karp; the referees Devin Usal and Sean Karass, as well as the coaches mentioned before. They all dressed up, got the kids excited to play, and did an amazing job in their respective roles, which made the activity so fun. I hope that we run this night activity next year and continue the tradition for many years to come.

Triple Crown

We have no new members of the Triple Crown this year. Lee Perryman did win World Cup on England, Desert War on Storm, but lost Color War by a mere 2 points (OUCH). Winning World Cup is the hardest of the 3 Triple Crown events as there is only a 1/12 chance of winning. Add that to the odds of winning Desert War (1/2) and Color War (1/2) and winning the Triple Crown becomes a 1/48 chance for campers who are Elite 8-ers. There is a reason it has only happened 9 times in 10 years. We will see all of you prospective Triple Crowners next year!

Unlike previous record setting teams, such as the 2007 Patriots and the 2016 Warriors, this year, England was able to close out their historic run. Although the field of competition was strong, filled with hopeful coaches, veteran seniors, and numerous new additions, England finished with a perfect 9-0 record, and concluded the day with back to back victories in the championship bombardment matches.

Despite the domination of England, they weren't favored by many heading into World Cup; in fact, other teams seemed to have far better players. In the World bracket, for example, South Africa had incredible returning seniors of Carl Hedges, Corey Perkins, and Prince Depina, as well as solid players like Jaden Segal and Derek Walsh. They virtually had the World Division on lock. Also, this year, USA had a great chance to finally secure their first victory in the history of West End World Cup. The Senior/Intermediate/Junior combo of Jaidin Russell, Matty Vogel, and Josiah Bowen was poised to be formidable. For the Europe division, Ireland also had a very competitive team.

In the morning, England swept the courts, going 3-0. Brazil and Spain, which are historically high performing teams, both managed 7 points, and jumped to the top of their respective brackets. Each team had extremely strong seniors (Brandon Goldberg for Spain and Zylas Abney and Riley Bloch for Brazil) which proved to be extremely crucial for the rest of the day. By the end of the morning, the Europe standings were: England (10 points), Spain (6 points), Ireland (6 points), Italy (4 points), France (3 points), and Greece (0 points). The World was a lot closer and remained competitive throughout the whole day: Brazil (7 points), Mexico (6 points), South Africa (6 points), Russia (4 points), China (4 points), and USA (3 points).

In the afternoon, the World and Europe teams played another 3 games and competed for more valuable points. At this point of the day, teams began to pull away and put themselves into contention to advance to the semifinal bombardment matches. England, Brazil and Spain continued to win and were considered locked in for the final. However, the World continued to be a close race for the second spot. By the end of the afternoon, the entire World division, not including Brazil, was within 3 points of each other. As the race became more competitive, rivalry matchups and the night’s games became even more crucial for the team’s success.

After dinner, the mess hall was quickly cleaned, and teams rushed to their games to compete for a spot in the championship. The European matches were dominated by England and Spain, each going a perfect 3-0, securing 10 points and a place in a semifinal bombardment game. With their final win, England became the second team in history to go 9-0, thanks to great coaching from Joe Connelly, and amazing play from an all-time great World Cup athlete, Jackson Magee. Italy also had a great night performance. Coached by Kyle Gagne, Italy tied their first game and won their last 2 games, putting them in third place in the standings. Ireland, France, and Greece rounded out the table, Greece unfortunately finishing winless. As for the world bracket, one of the most intense handball games in recent memory between USA and Russia turned the tennis court into a fully attended arena. Drew Seifer’s USA was able to edge Max Brody, and the Russian team’s playoff hopes. Shockingly, the heavily favored South Africa was not able to advance. They finished 4th despite early predictions and hopes of a victory. Mexico and China also finished at the bottom of the table with 11 points each.

Finally, World Cup concluded with 3 action packed dodgeball games to crown a champion for the year. In the first match, Brazil defeated USA. Their captain, Zylas Abney, was dominating by picking up a couple of quick eliminations. With that loss, USA has still yet to win in its history. Nevertheless, it was a great year for the team, and they hope to rebound next year. In the next game, England defeated Spain, crushing the hopes of Brandon Goldberg and his Coach, Brandon Buckman. In the final round, the Cinderella Story Brazil, coached by Sean Karass, went against England, concluding 2019 World Cup with an England victory. Interestingly, England has now won World Cup 3 times, and Jackson Magee is the first camper ever to win 2 golden balls (the MVP of the winning team of World Cup). Next year, on the day of World Cup, camp will dine on English cuisine as the 12 teams clash for the cup.

Desert War 2019
by Drew Seifer and Joe Connelly

Desert War 2019 began on Wednesday, July 17th during the night activity Murder Mystery when all the campers were gathered in the rec hall to vote on a 2v5 staff basketball game for a clue. What they never saw coming was after a few possessions had passed, Joe Connelly threw up a half-court shot, and Drew Seifer simultaneously killed the power in the building. Whistles and sirens rang through the air as the excited crowd swarmed out of the building and flooded down to the Council Ring. Right before the teams were divided out, it was revealed that Desert War 2019 marks the first appearance of a certain color throughout the activity’s history. The teams would be Tropic (Pink) and Storm (Turquoise). Tropic coaches were announced to be Aidan Connelly, Devin Usal, Cole Lepler, and Josh Wolf, and captains were Ryan Torres, Zylas Abney, Dom Delgado, and Carl Headges. Meanwhile, Storm was coached by Ben Kaplan, Jeremy Freed, Kyle Gagne, and Nick Silva, and captained by Mike Sudkin, Corey Perkins, Brandon Goldberg, and Jaidin Russell. Instead of solving a murder, the teams were instead split off to prepare and strategize for the big day.

As the sun rose above Long Pond, an immense energy filled all of camp and led the teams to the first activity, Color Rush. Both teams came out cautious but aggressive, it was clear that they did not want to risk too much early on. Rounds 2+3 ended with stalemates; however the action quickly picked up as Tropic began winning more and more rounds. Lower camp echoed with the call “RUSH!” as campers tore through camp in hopes of freeing the jail or obtaining a ball from the crate. As the activity came to a conclusion, the score was Tropic 70, Storm 30.

Storm knew they needed to step up and came into the afternoon activities by...storm. The juniors found out they would be doing a new version of the Westendo Challenge, while the seniors would run the Ironman relay. The 2019 Westendo challenge consisted of two activities, Crossfire and Tug of War. Crossfire is played on the soccer field with the standard nets, along with a smaller net on the sides of the field. Teams would defend one large and one small net throughout rounds of soccer, handball, and ultimate frisbee. The object of the game is to have the least about of balls/frisbees in your goal by the time each round ends. Originally, juniors and intermediates were grouped together for Crossfire, however after a couple rounds the executive decision was made to split the groups into separate rounds. Overall, Crossfire provided an improved afternoon activity, and there are ways to build upon it to make it even better for future years. While this was happening, the seniors were pushing their limits for their teams. The Ironman relay begins with a swimming portion, followed by a biking portion, and finishes with a running portion. When the runner finishes, their next teammate may begin. A notable mention goes to Brandon Goldberg of Storm for the fastest time of the day of 17:52:12, which places him 7th on the all-time ironman board...two spots below his older brother, Jordan Goldberg. Additionally, Maximo Gomez of Storm cut his ironman time 14 minutes down from his trail time, the best improvement by far of the day. As the eventful afternoon came to an end, Storm gained 114 points and Tropic gained 51. This made the score going into the night activity- Storm 144, Tropic 121.

Going into Capture the Flag down 23, Tropic knew they needed to continue to push, as they were far from out. What makes Capture the Flag so important is the fact that after both a Junior and Senior round ends, the point value for the next round increases by 10 points. The activity began with Tropic being more offensive, as Storm could technically wait out the 75-minute activity period and win. The teams ended up trading rounds for the first two Junior and Senior games. Tropic took the lead after winning the last 30-point game and first 40-point game, and seemed to be in control. However, things took a sudden turn as a wave of momentum swept through the Storm players. Storm proceeded to win the final five rounds, worth 40, 50, 50, 60, 60 Desert War points, which was enough to end the night activity and Desert War 2019. Shout outs to Ryan Torres of Tropic who had two throwing captures, Messiah Bowen of Storm with the first two junior round rushing captures, George Shattuck of Storm with a rushing and throwing capture, and Corey Perkins of Storm with two throwing captures (including the ending round). This made the final score of Desert War Storm 464, Tropic 221. Despite the score at first glance, this was one of the closest Desert Wars in recent years and ended beautifully.

All of camp came down from the fields and gathered in the Council Ring one final time. The score of Desert War was read and all campers stood up to sing the House Song. Teams showed great sportsmanship at the end as both teams chanted each other’s names. Tropic went back to their bunks to get ready for cake and milk, while Storm headed down to the tennis courts to paint Desert War rock. A huge thanks goes out to the directors, Ryan Wilensky for helping the runners tackle this day, Steve Lepler, Bill Margolin, and Josh Daigle. Additionally, the thanks continue to Juan Ruiz for taking pictures and videos throughout the whole day. Now, Desert War rock will remain Turquoise...until next year.

2019 COLOR WAR IS NOW...

We had several ideas for the Color War start but nothing was getting us excited. When that happens, I typically recommend we take something that was big in camp this summer and make it into a start. For example, a few years ago with the Russian Flag start. This year, if you were in camp during any elective time, you would be shocked to see several Frisbees being thrown from the Council Ring towards the Rec Hall and back. Frisbee Golf was indeed hot this summer.

So, we have a night activity, West End Gladiators, in which we have counselors face off vs. each other in silly activities and each cabin picks who they think is going to win. For example, one year we had 2 terrific Basketball players on staff and they went vs. 8 CITs and beat them. We have had rap battles, love song singing contests, and even my boys wrestling vs. me. This year we started with another rap battle in the Council Ring. Then we had Ultimate Frisbee Super Star, Griffin Yas vs. Tim Chu, also a great Frisbee thrower. They had to play a 1-hole course in front of the camp starting near the Rec Hall steps and throwing to a Disc Golf Basket placed in the Council Ring. Tim Chu started off with a nice normal throw. Then Griffin Yas took a Frisbee with smoke bombs attached to it and throw it in the grass with white smoke coming out of it. Tim picked up another Frisbee and did the same, except this one had blue smoke coming out of it. The smoke bombs were taped to the top of the Frisbees. We practiced this several times to make sure it would work and that it was 100% safe. Jordan Leppo set off a flare gun and an explosion happened near the beach volleyball court. Jordan yelled out the magic words "COLOR WAR IS NOW" and CW 2019 had officially begun. It was a B- start. Could have been an A, but there was a big lag time between the time each Frisbee’s smoke went off. Bummer.

2 cool and different themes this year. It is the White Showtime, movie characters from memorable films like Back to the Future, Indiana Jones, Rocky and other ones I'm too lame to know. They have 3 captains, Brandon Goldberg, Carl Headges, and Zylas Abney. Their head coaches are Drew Seifer and Joe Connelly. They have some cool signs. I loved Griffin Yas’ outfit as he dressed as Marty McFly and had the exact same hat and sneakers. Aidan Connelly’s entrance doing a Spiderman off the Health Center was cool. However, my favorite was definitely Cole Lepler who came running down the inner path with a fake bolder chasing him dressed as Indiana Jones.

The Blue Heist are high-class thieves, like Oceans 11. Their captains are Corey Perkins, Jaidin Russell and Mike Sudkin. Their head coaches are Ben Kaplan and Brandon Buckman. I did not catch their entrances, but I heard Max Brody’s was good. They have a money shooter and some cool signs as well. Bunk1 will show all this better than I describe it.

For those hardcore fans out there, the ref theme is History. Division names are Gettysburg, Waterloo, etc. My name is Napoleon for some reason. I think it’s because I helped improve the infrastructure of camp and I improved camp trade. That has to be it. Bill is George Washington. Jordan Leppo is back again helping running this war, but Ryan Karp and Jon Kraus are the co-runners and have been impressive.

Some interesting camper facts...

- For the CW prediction challenge this year, Brady Bloch had the highest overall score (Blue) and Matty Vogel had the highest score for white.
- Lee Perryman (Blue) is the only camper still eligible for the elusive “Triple Crown” which is winning World Cup, Desert War and Color War in the same year. He won World Cup on England and Desert War on Storm so far this summer.
- 6 former color war captains are coaching this year. For Blue, Buckman, Kaplan, Barp (Brandon Karp), and Max Brody. For White, Cole Lepler and Griffin Yas were HSCs.
- Last time 2 brothers coached on the same CW team was 2002, with Drew Thomases and Seth Thomases. I had to look that one up.
- 2 Bloch’s are on blue (Riley and Brady) and 1 on white (Jonah), cousin Cameron is on blue as well.
- Cousins - Andelman’s (Zach + Max) are finally on the same team.
- There are several twin combos. Ben and Liam Grabie are on different sides as are the Dubuc’s, O’Connor’s, and Hahn’s. Josiah and Messiah Bowen are both on the White team.
• Different sided brother tandems - Fitzpatrick, Abbari
• Cousins Prince and Myles DePina are on opposite sides.
• The Nguyen's are both on white as are the Santos' and Jones'. Both Perryman's are on Blue.
• The first pick in draft was the white Seniors. Having stared at it again, I'm a little worried already. But, I think Blue should be able to find at least 1-2 wins.
• The High Seniors were the 4th overall pick, which is extremely rare. I hope that this is a sign that it’s dead even.
• Tugs tomorrow evening

Morning Predictions

• Junior kickball - tough to call. Derek Jones and AJ Alves are fast and good fielders for White. Gael and Chris Tomaz-Hull are good fielders for blue. But, I like Derek Jones at shortstop. I'm going white kind of easily. I think white puts Derek at short, AJ Alves at pitcher, and Ace Eagerman as the catcher.
• High Junior Soccer - Should be a good one. The best 2 players are Noah Thompson for White and AJ Valentine for Blue. Gabe Klapman is also outstanding for blue. I like Blue as they also have Zack Wynn and better depth.
• Intermediate Basketball - Blue is very high on this group as it has major camp veterans, but this is one sport the runners feel good about for white as Ross Israel is by far the best player in this game. I could see him scoring 20+ and winning this in a low scoring game like 40-34. I like White here rather easily.
• High Intermediate Volleyball - Volleyball at this level is about depth and who can serve it the best. Matty Vogel is an absolute beast in this group for white, but blue might have the next 4 best guys led by Thomas O'Connor + Nathan Riesenberg. I'm going with Blue.
• Senior Waterpolo - This better be a win for Blue or we are in trouble. We love Blue in this game with Nikita and Harry Rubin and Liam Grabie. If not, I'm gonna have a panic attack over this group.
• High Senior Softball - When we made the teams, we felt this game was a slight edge to Blue. Blue might have the best player in Riley Bloch, who is only in the 1s. They also have Mike Sudkin, who is a terrific fielder and Jaidin Russell is a beast in the outfield. For White, Brandon Goldberg is a terrific fielder as is Ryan Torres. Actually, as I write this, I am changing my mind. Michael Colon was our sleeper by the scouting department as he is good at everything and had to be moved up to High Seniors. I see Torres and Goldberg controlling this game on defense and Dom Delgado, Carl and Ben Grabie dropping bombs. I am going with White in a mild upset.

Afternoon Predictions

• Junior Soccer - Tough call here. They will play on the short field with the new soccer nets, which should help the game out. I like Blue's depth a little better here as white has more kids who aren’t soccer players.
• High Junior Kickball - I like white, the Bowen's cover huge ground on D and Tyler Hahn does as well. Jack Goldberg can drop bombs for them as well. I think this is an easy win for white.
• Intermediate Volleyball - I LOVE blue in this game. Spencer Hertz would probably dominate the group above him, he's that good. In addition, they have more guys who have been there before and guys who can serve it. I don’t see this being close.
• High Intermediate Hoops - Blue should win as they probably have players 2-6 in this game. But, Matty Vogel has help with Josh Wotten down low and Andrew Nguyen is a great glue guy like Andre Iguodala. But, Blue has Spencer Parco, Riesenberg, Pedro Alves, and Brady Fitzpatrick. Just too much depth. Vogel will keep it close, but I'm going with Blue.
• Senior Softball - White should kill them. They have great hitters with Jonah Bloch, who hits a line drive over the 3rd baseman every single time. Eli Avergun is very good as well. I just think white has better bats. Harry Rubin might be the best player in the game, but he is coming off an injury, so I'm not sure his lateral quickness will be there.
• High Senior Waterpolo - Brandon Goldberg is the best player and Ryan Torres is good too. We like Dom Delgado in this game as well. Blue has CP (Corey Perkins) and Jaidin Russell might actually be the best swimmer in camp. But, I can’t go against a Goldberg in Waterpolo. White it is.
That would make it a 3-3 morning and 3-3 afternoon. Wishful thinking.

Evening Predictions

Tugs - I don’t have much opinion, but I love White’s HS as Dom Delgado is huge and Ben Grabie is extremely strong. Blue has an overall thinner group. I like white senior, high intermediates, blue intermediates, white high juniors and blue juniors.

Morning Results

- Junior kickball - Blue won easily with Gael dominating the field.
- High Junior Soccer - White was outstanding in this game. Noah Thompson was by far the best player. Tyler Hahn and Anson Nguyen were outstanding on defense. Sam Enright was also great for white. Gabe Klapman and Zack Wynn scored for Blue.
- Intermediate Basketball - Big BIG BIGGGGG trouble. Blue was amazing. Braden Dubuc was a beast as on both ends and was clearly the best player in the game. His defense vs. Ross Israel was suffocating. Jacob Dancey was terrific for blue as well. Brady Bloch and Spencer Hertz scored a few 3-pointers. Dubuc had 10, Brady, Hertz and Dancey had 14 each. For White Josh Mawanda had 12 points and Ross ended with 11 points.
- High Intermediate Volleyball - Again way off, White dominated with Matty Vogel and Josh Wotten up front were a great combo. Ben Collier served well for white. I just don’t get how this was a blowout and neither did coach Brody for blue.
- Senior Waterpolo - OK, something we were right about. Blue dominated with Liam Grabie scoring 8 goals. Harry Rubin was good as well.
- High Senior Softball - Truly one of the greatest color war games ever. Blue was winning most of the game, but white made a comeback to tie it in the 7th inning at 13-13. Blue took a 16-13 lead going into the bottom of the 9th. White started with 3 consecutive hits and cut the lead to 16-14 with runners on 1st and 3rd. There was a grounder to 2nd base and Mohaned tagged out Brandon Goldberg to have 2 outs 16-15. So, it was 16-15, runners on 1st and 3rd with 2 outs. Ben Grabie was up and had struck out looking the at bat before. He hits a rocket to third and Riley Bloch makes a diving catch to end an epic game. Tough loss for white and blue wins the split 4-2. Riley Bloch was outstanding and earned MVP. Ryan Torres was great in left field for white and Dom Delgado had many bombs for white. For Blue, Dakota Leconte had great hits for blue.

Afternoon Results

- Junior Soccer - White won a bizarre game. AJ Alves was the best player and Derek Jones was great for white. Nadim played well. Gael played well for blue and scored their only goal. Nico (Narp) Torres played well in goal. Ace Eagerman shut down a big 2 vs.1 in the 2nd half.
- High Junior Kickball - I am not even close again. Zack Wynn was amazing hitting a home run that I’m told almost made the woods. AJ Valentine was good as well as Cooper Fitzpatrick.
- Intermediate Volleyball - Well I was right about this one. Blue killed them. Spencer Hertz was terrific, as was Brady Bloch. This division is looking bad and the one that concerns me the most. Coach Sean Karass probably does not want me to advertise this, but he won his first color war game as a coach after dropping 7 in a row to start his career.
- High Intermediate Hoops - Conversely, Brandon Buckman is human as a coach and lost his first game after 7 straight wins. Umm Matty Vogel was Matty Vogel dominating the game. Josh Wotton was Wilt Chamberlain down low. This division is also scaring me. Next year, we are putting Lebron James against Vogel. This game was a disaster from the start. Nathan Riesenberger played well for blue as well as Pedro Alves in the 2nd half. Blue just did not take care of the ball in the 1st quarter and was down 20.
- Senior Softball - White did indeed kill them. Eli Avergun hit a monster bomb in this game for white. Prince DePina played well. I'm guessing this will end up as the least competitive game in color war.
• High Senior Waterpolo - Terrific game again. Dom Delgado scored twice and Ryan Torres scored another 2 as white was able to slow down Jaidin Russell just enough to hold on to a 4-2 win. Brandon Goldberg shadowed Jaidin most of the game. This division looks outstanding.

White went 4-2 in the afternoon.

Evening Results
Rained out. Blue won tennis 5 matches to 1 and archery 4 to 2. So they are up 12 points going into tomorrow. We will do tugs probably during rest period.

Score blue 72-60

Day 2 Predictions

Morning

• Junior Relays - Each team gets a CW point for each of the 10 relays. I like blue a little better as I think they have kids who are less likely to get angry. I'll go 7-3 CW points for blue.

• High Junior Waterpolo - Cooper Fitzpatrick is good for blue and we think Lachlan Welsh could be good for white. I don't really know here, I'm gonna go with Blue though. Cole Fontecchio had to go home for a couple days and just arrived in time. He should be blue's best player.

• Intermediate Football - I am not going against the Blue intermediates. They are the best team in color war right now. White has faster guys, blue is better on the line. The Dubuc matchup could dictate the winner. I'm going blue something like 20-6.

• High Intermediate Softball - This should be blue's best chance to get on the board in this group. Matty Vogel can't really win a softball game by himself. Although, he will probably end up with 5 home runs. The infield of Spencer Parco, Brady Fitzpatrick, and Thomas O'Connor looks too good. I may regret this, but I'm going with Blue.

• Senior Volleyball - I'm going with White. White has the better group here with more depth. Blue has too many kids with unreliable serves. Eli Avergun has should be big for white.

• High Senior Soccer - This division has been outstanding so far. I'm going white because they have Carl Headges and he is the best Soccer player in camp by a mile. They also have Ryan Torres and speed with Ben Grabie, Zylas, and Michael Colon. I just don't see anyone on Blue other than Mohaned making a difference. I'm going 5-1 white.

That would be 3-2 with a 7-3 relay for blue. So, I predict 37 points to 23 for blue.

Rest Period Tugs
As stated yesterday...I don't have much opinion, but I love White's HS as Dom Delgado is huge and Ben Grabie is extremely strong. Blue has an overall thinner group. I like white senior, high intermediates, blue intermediates, white high juniors and blue juniors. So 4 tugs to 2 for White.

Afternoon

• Junior Waterpolo - Oyyyy. Can I predict a 0-0 tie? That's what I'm doing. I think Derek Jones has the only chance to score for white.

• High Junior Hoops - Should be a great one. Blue has the best player with Zack Wynn. But the Bowens are terrific for white and Tyler Hahn is Marcus Smart on D. I could see Tyler making Zack's life miserable and white winning a close one. Zack Wynn doesn't have as much help as the Bowen's.

• Intermediate Softball - Blue seems too good here, but Miles Murray is terrific for white at shortstop and the best player in the group. But, I just like Blue's depth hitting. Ugghh.
High Intermediate Football - Blue has better depth and more skill position guys. White has Matty Vogel. I'm picking Matty Vogel, and White. If blue wins, Pedro Alves could be the key. White has bigger kids on their line with Wotton, Santos, and Collier.

Senior Soccer - Tarlee Casey is the best player in the group for blue. White has better athletes overall, but are slower. Mardochee Mexil could be a sleeper for white. I'm going with Tarlee and Blue because I think he is far better than anyone else.

High Senior Volleyball - Who has Jaidin Russell? Blue. Enough said. And it’s not like he has no help. CP, Sudkin, and Riley are very good. White has an outside shot if Carl can minimize the Jaidin factor and Ben Grabie plays great. I don’t see it. Blue it is.

That would be blue 3-2-1

Evening
Apache Relay for the Seniors. I like CP and Sudkin here. One will shoot the free throws I bet. I'm going with Blue.

Speeling Beas - know idear. Rost Israel should wyn one for Wite.

Day 2 Results
Morning

Junior Relays - WOW, I was dead on for this one, bizarre. White won the 1st 2 relays, then blue won 7 in a row and white the last one. I think the top shelf players were about even. But, blue had more depth and speed. Carter Lee was good getting blue a lead on most of the relays. Gael and Chris T-H were great as well. For White, Nadim was good at shooting.

High Junior Waterpolo - Bit of an upset here. In a great game, White held on 2-1. Sam Enright, Messiah Bowen, and Tyler Hahn played great for white. Cole Fontecchio played as well as anticipated and blue probably should have won this game.

Intermediate Football - Braden Dubuc is single handedly ruining a division. The kid has been by far the best athlete in the group. Terrible scouting by our Analytics staff. If we literally just took him off the field, this division would be even.

High Intermediate Softball - Uggghhh, White has great chemistry right now and killed them. This reminds me of a junior version of the Coby Tippett 6-0 High Seniors 6 years ago. 1 great player with solid role players with positive attitudes is defeating the more talented team.

Senior Volleyball - Blue got the first game, and then lost the next 3. Julian Badger played great. I have a coaching gripe. After blue won relays, Brandon Buckman, who is an outstanding coach went up to help with Football, as it’s the sport he knows best. HOWEVER, (TM Bill Margolin) that game was in the bag and Volleyball was 2 coaches vs. 1 for the remainder of the game.

High Senior Soccer - Well played game. Carl scored in the 1st half. I got up there at the half. Blue outplayed white most of the half, but White had better scorers. Torres lofted a goal over the outstretched fingertips of CP. Then Carl kicked a rocket in the right corner that went 90 MPH. Blue scored late on a PK by Mohaned.

Big morning for white as they received 43 points vs. 17 for blue.

Afternoon

Junior Waterpolo - Blue won 3-0 as Gael was good at throwing and Nasr Abbari was good swimming.

High Junior Hoops - Truly a legendary and memorable game. White was outplaying blue for most of the game with Josiah Bowen's scoring (17 points) and Tyler Hahn's Velcro defense on star Zack Wynn. Zack got off to a slow start as coach Griffin Yas had a great plan to double team Zack and make someone else beat them. With 4 minutes left in the game, white opened up a 9-point lead and it looked like Tyler Hahn was on his way to an MVP with 4 points, 10 boards, 10 steals and absurdly great defense. HOWEVER (TM Bill Margolin). Wynn hit a crazy 3, scored again and cut it to 4. Josiah finally fouled out after playing most of the game in foul trouble. Blue had all the momentum and took a 1 point lead in front of a huge crowd that came in from other games. With 2 minutes left, both sides had several shots, but could not score. White had the ball with 3 seconds left and couldn't get a shot off. Truly, a miraculous win for blue as frankly, white played better. But, you can’t keep Zack Wynn down for an entire game. He ended up with 13 as did his backcourt mate AJ Valentine.

- Intermediate Softball - At least it wasn’t a debacle this time. Blue won with Brady Bloch leading the way. He is having a great war.
- High Intermediate Football - It was a close, defensive game early. Then Coach Connelly of white gave the ball to Josh Wotton, like an old school fullback and Wotton dominated the rest of the game.
- Senior Soccer - Not a good game as white won 6-0. They just had too much depth.
- High Senior Volleyball - Oh yeah, blue had Jaidin Russell and Jaidin destroyed white with crazy 100 MPH serves.

Blue won 4-2

Early Evening Tugs

In the first time to my knowledge, we did tugs after the games because it rained between 1-2pm. Wow, I got all 6 correct. All 6 tugs were won fairly easy. So, white won 4-2 on the tugs and took a 5-point lead into dinner. There is a hysterically famous picture of Senior Counselor, Brion Rock motivating a young, adorable Raymond Wu during tugs back in 2010, I believe. Raymond had a terrific “tug of war face.” Well Raymond is all grown up and was shot, by our photographer, doing the same thing as a coach 9 years later tonight. Circle of life. This picture is literally famous. It’s all over the web.

!Tug of War

Evening

Oh my Matty Vogel. The kid is in 3B and was chosen to take the free throws. He hits the first 3. This was an incredible relay with it being nearly tied for most of it. White took a lead on Mystery Question with Brandon Goldberg and extended the lead in Wiffleball with Eli Avergun hitting the roof early. Then Brandon Goldberg was back doing tennis and did it quickly. Blue looked toast. HOWEVER (TM Snoopy), ”Shocket Man” hit his first archery shot and blue made a miraculous save in the penalty kick and was only down by about 6 seconds going into the run. I videoed the finish as white held on by 3 seconds. Unreal. Jordan Leppo and Jon Kraus did a great job leading this stressful event.

Spelling Bees - Blue won 2 and white won 1 with Miles Murray.

White is up 15 going into the big day 3. 430 points up for grabs tomorrow.

I wanted to point out that Aidan Connelly is 4-0 as a coach and 2 divisions are 4-0. White High Intermediates and Blue Intermediates.

As for the Raymond Wu pic. I got emails from contemporaries reminding me how big the tug of war picture is online. There are memes, photoshops etc. I guess this picture was huge on reddit.

Day 3 Predictions

Morning
Junior Track Meet
We really made the teams with the biggest eye on swim and track as it is the most predictable. The juniors, Gael and Derek Jones should be good for their respective teams. I love white High Juniors with the Bowen's and Tyler Hahn. But, Gabe Klapman and Vincent Pham could make it close. In the Intermediates, although they are being creamed in sports, I think white has more speed and should be close to even. Although Spencer Hertz should win softball throw.

That said, I'm going White 54-46

Senior Swim Meet
Desmond Gao is on blue, so that should be an advantage for blue in High Ints. In Seniors, we think Nikita is slightly faster than Brian Tong, so Blue should have a little advantage there too. In High Seniors, typically I'd say Brandon Goldberg won't lose. However (TM Billy Margolin), Jaidin Russell can definitely beat Brandon. I think Brandon will most likely win, but I wouldn't be shocked if Jaidin won, as he had better times in the practice swim meet.

So, I like Blue 55-45 points.

Afternoon
Junior Swim Meet
Derek Jones and Nasr should be neck in neck for the juniors. In High Juniors, I love Cole Fontecchio for blue in that group. Intermediates, Zach Andelman is the best (blue), but Christian O'Connell is good for white.

I think it goes 56-44 blue

Senior Track Meet
High Intermediates, Ben Goldberg should be good for white. But, I like Brady Fitzpatrick in the SB throw. In Seniors, Nikita and Liam for blue looks good, but white has better depth. In High Seniors, Sincere vs. Jaidin in dash and Broad jump should be super close. I love Torres to win the Distance and I think Shocket takes the Steeple for blue.

I think this will be close overall. I'm going with Blue 52-48

Evening
Younger kids do the Apache. Who knows, but I'll take blue b/c of that intermediate division and their juniors are clicking too.

Spelling Bees - no idea, let’s call it 2 for blue, 1 for white.

So, if I'm right the score of CW would be blue up 23, which would be a big day for blue.

Day 3 Results
Day 3 did not go well at all for blue. 1 thing I was happy about today was the 3 divisions that were not doing well, the team that has been losing did great today. For example, white intermediates were awesome as well as Blue High Intermediates and Blue Seniors. People totally underrate swim-track day. I'd rather have a division lose 2-4 and win swim track day easily than the converse. Each division is really worth 66 points on the day.

Morning
Junior Track Meet
The Bowens were good for white. The key guy of the entire day was Miles Murray for White. He is a junior that was brought up to a higher level. Not only did Miles kill it in swim and track, he had one of the best Apache relays I can remember. Bryson Dubuc beat his brother in the distance. White won in a blowout by 33 color war points. It was the steeplechases, where they did their damage taking all 31/36 track points.
Senior Swim Meet
The Goldberg brother streak is finally over. Brandon Goldberg lost a tight freestyle swim to Jaidin Russell. But, Brandon battled back to win the backstroke and distance easily. I am sure their dad, Dean, will correct me if I got this wrong. But, I think Jordan Goldberg (Brandon's brother), was in 6 color wars and won all 18 races he participated in. (I was wrong, Jordan lost a race his first year). I think this is Brandon's 8th color war and he won 23/24 races he participated in. So, the Goldberg's won 41/42 swim races during Color war and lost 1 by a small margin over a camper with a 10 foot reach. Desmond Gao was great for blue and Abbas Ngoboko was a surprise star for white in the Senior group. White won by another 8 color war points.

Afternoon

Junior Swim Meet
I have to make fun of veteran counselor Jordan Leppo here. When this was over, he said "it was really close" which made me happy as Blue did well in track. When we calculated the results, I kept looking at him saying, "umm how is this close?" Derek Jones was a beast for the Junior group for white. White started the meet with a big momentum starting relay win with the Jones', Jayden Gu and Ace. Cole Fontecchio was as good as advertised for blue in the High Junior group, but white won with Lachlan Welsh and Sam Enright getting several places. The combo of Miles Murray and Christian O'Connor were great in the Intermediates for white.

Senior Track Meet
Blue swept the relays and it looked like this could be the momentum turner of color war. Josh Wotton, for white continues to make us look dumb for not moving him up to Seniors. Kid is just giant, fast and has been scary good. He won the steeple rather easily. The best race of the day was Billy Tan vs. Max Plotnik in the distance. Billy was winning most of the race, and then Max took a lead with a lap left. However, (TM Margolin), Billy came back and snuck in front of Max for the win. Liam Grabie won the Senior distance so easily, that I really think he could have got back on the line and won the High Senior Distance afterwards. He wasn't even tired. Liam Grabie vs. Ryan Torres in CW 2020 should be awesome if they face off in the distance. Ryan Torres won the distance easily for the white high seniors. In the dash, Sincere Northcross was a good 0.5 faster than 2nd place guy in the time trials. Just absurd. After he won first, he faced off vs. counselor Namon Casey, who is literally one of the fastest kids in Worcester and it was dead even. Man, I hope Sincere does track in high school. Zylas Abney won the steeple for white easily.

Evening
I am going to vomit. White won again, this time by 18 seconds. So, blue lost 2 Apaches by a combined 21 seconds. If those go the other way, they are only down 30 points. There is your color war ladies and gentlemen. This race was again a dead heat the entire time. It looked like white had it in the bag, after Miles Murray nailed the wiffleball hit. But, blue caught up on tennis. However, Miles again was huge doing the Archery and got white enough of a lead to hold on for the win. To make matters much worse, white won all 3 spelling bees and is now up 90 points. YUCK!

It should be noted that the games have been an exact tie so far. But, white won 2 Apache's, 4/6 spelling bees, 4/6 tug and won swim and track by about 55. That's the color war right there.

Day 4 Predictions
Color war is easier to see after day 3. The easy way to look at it is there are 15 games left, 12 sports and 3 Omelets and blue has a lot of work to do. In 2017, Blue Order was in a similar spot and won 11/15 games and came back for the win. This time, Blue will have to win minimum 11 games to even have a chance. Realistically, they need 12 or 11 and a tie as I don’t think they will win song night. So, 12 wins is what I think they need.

Morning

Junior Newcombe - I like blue in this group. Gael is a beast up front and they have stronger kids who can serve.

High Junior Softball - Tough call, I’m going with white. I think Tyler Hahn and the speed of the Bowen's are too much.
Intermediate Soccer - I actually think white can win here as they have far greater speed. Jacob Dancey is a rock on D for blue. I'm going with a mild upset and taking white here. I like how they did yesterday and they are ready to get on the board. Jayden Rivera is good for white.

High Intermediate Waterpolo - Blue should win, white will win. Josh Wotton will probably score a goal from Kennards. Desmond Gao should be great, but I'm not picking against King Kong Wotton.

Senior Football - White looks great on paper. I like their depth on the line in this group. But, Harry Rubin is a terrific QB and blue could win if he connects with Liam Grabie. I just see Julian Badger behind a great line and white winning easily.

High Senior Hoops - should be a great one. Blue has CP, Jaidin "Rudy Gobert" Russell, Mike Sudkin's shooting and Myles DePina's play making. White has Ryan Torres and Remi, which is a terrific backcourt, Carl, and Zylas down low. I'm going with Blue. As my brother always says, which High Senior has the best player in hoops, they win every time. I think CP is the best player and is hungry. I'm going with Blue.

Let's hope I'm wrong because that would be the color war and white would have a great shot at 600 club.

Afternoon

3 Omelets. For the Senior one I'll take White b/c blue seniors aren't great hitters. For the Intermediate game, I'm taking Blue with their depth and the junior game, I'm taking Blue. So, Blue would get 10 points back

Day 4 Results

Morning

Junior Newcomb - Blue won, but it took 3 games. They won easily game one, lost game 2 and then won the last game 6-2. Mason Felker was a beast with his serve.

High Junior Softball - Blue came back and won 6-5. This game kept blue in the color war for the time being.

Intermediate Soccer - One of the best games of Color War. It was tough for me as a fan because I wanted White intermediates to get on the board, but I wanted blue to cut into the lead. Also, I wanted Brandon Karp to get his first win. Blue was up 2-1 and Miles Murray scored to tie the game. Ori Kohl, for blue, made a game saving play literally at the buzzer to send it to overtime. In overtime, neither team had a great chance. Then Spencer Hertz kicked a bomb from 5 yards inside half field over the head of Bryson Dubuc to take a 3-2 lead in ot with only a few minutes left. Blue won again as this division is 5-0 now, but this game was one that white easily could've had.

High Intermediate Waterpolo - Wotton played goalie and stopped everything. Matty Vogel had a gun and scored a few times and white won again 4-0. If we could do this color war again, Wotton would be a Senior and Braden Dubuc would've been a high intermediate.

Senior Football - Easy win for white. It was close for a while, and then Eli Avergun made a pick 6 that was reminiscent of the Franco Harris immaculate reception play. Unreal.

High Senior Hoops - I was dead on here. White was up 9 at the half as Ryan Torres hit 4 3-pointers including a bank buzzer beater at the half. I wasn't that worried for blue as they seemed to be getting better shots. Jaidin Russell was huge in the 3rd period as he hit a couple shots and got every rebound. If I had to guess Jaidin's stats, I'd say he went 8 pts, 15 boards and 5 blocks. It was like AD in the national championship game for Kentucky. Didn't score much, but was the most influential player. His D on Carl Headges was great. CP was the key scorer for blue, and blue took a 6-point lead with 3 minutes left. I did not agree with blue's decision to slow the game up, as it took them out of their rhythm late in the game. White came back and tied it. Then CP hit a shot that will be talked about for a long time. He banked a 3 with 45 seconds left. White missed a 3, blue got the rebound and CP was at the line on a 1 on 1 to secure the game with 14 seconds left. Swish, Swish, game over. 44-39 Blue. CP ended up with 18, Jaidin and Sudkin 9 each and Myles DePina had 6 before fouling out. For White, Torres had 19 points, Carl 6, and Remi 5.

Blue won 4-2 and cut the lead to 70. Still need a lot of work
Afternoon

Junior Omelet - Cooper Fitzpatrick hit an amazing home run for blue. Cam Bloch was Pedro Martinez on the mound with 4 straight strikeouts and a couple good hits. Gabe Klapman was solid at 3rd and blue won easily 10-3.

Intermediate Omelet - great 1st inning as white was up 6-5. In the top of the 2nd, blue put up 5 runs with Spencer Hertz, Jacob Dancey, and Brady Bloch with big hits. Blue was up 11-6 and held white to ZERO runs in the 2nd for a big win. The infield of Brady, Hertz, Parco and Rand were awesome for blue. Now, blue just needs a big senior win and they are back in color war.

Senior Omelet - White was up big in the 2nd inning up 13-6 going into the bottom of the inning. This is the only game blue was the home team. White made some very sloppy plays in the field and blue cut the lead to 13-11 with a few batters left, runners on 2nd and 3rd. Jaidin Russell got a hit bringing in the tying run. With men on 2nd and 3rd, last batter, Softball superstar, Riley Bloch was at the plate and hit it up the middle to bring Juan Barrios home for THE SWEEP. The last 3 years Omelets have been a sweep. Truly bizarre.

Blue is now only down 40 with 60 points available before song night. They won day 4, 70-20 points. Like I said this morning, white needs 2 more wins.

So, Blue need to go 6-0, 5-1 or 4-1-1(tie) in my opinion. I don’t think 4-2 will cut it, but it would make it possible.

See you tomorrow for predictions

We have a WAR!!!

Day 5 Predictions

Morning

Junior Softball - The Gael-Chris T-H combo has been great this color war for blue. I think white is just as good, but they have more highly emotional players. I am going with blue. I hope that this is not the last game of color war this year as it’s been the last few years and it’s been kind of anti-climactic. Hope it’s the football game.

High Junior Newcomb - I like the Bowen's and Tyler Hahn to even off this division for a 3-3 split for white. The Bowen's cover a lot of ground and I think the white has better depth.

Intermediate Waterpolo - I'd really like the White intermediates to get on the board, even if it’s bad for the overall score of color war. They have such a nice group of kids with Ross Israel, Josh Mawanda, etc. After a brutal loss in soccer yesterday as well, they deserve one today. White has better swimmers, but blue has better throwers. I am going with white here.

High Intermediate Soccer - Everyone thinks Matty Vogel is a guaranteed win in soccer as he is probably the most talented player this camp has seen since Gui Stampur back in 1995. Blue might have the next best 5 best players and I think coach Brandon Karp has something up his sleeve for Vogel. If I were him, I would literally triple shadow him and dare anyone else to beat me. I am serious. I am going with white because I'd kick myself if Matty scores 8 goals like he normally does. But, this is a winnable game for blue as Spencer Parco is unreal as well. Man, I hope blue wins this one. Again, the worst part of running color war is how personally bad I feel when we let a kid down like Nathan Riesenberger. 2 straight years, he has had an amazing attitude, but has only won 1 game. That's on us, not him. I told him yesterday he can ask Whitney on a date in 15 years. That's the highest compliment I can give a kid.

Senior Hoops - Blue has the best 2 players in the game in my opinion with Liam Grabie and Harry Rubin. But, white probably has the next 3. When we made this group, we loved blue in Waterpolo and we liked them in hoops and thought everything else could go to white. I am going with blue because basketball is about star power and Liam and Harry could dominate. Abbas and Prince could be huge for white.
High Senior Football - One of the best high senior divisions ever. Every game has been close and white needs a win here to even it off. CP is the best QB in camp, but Torres is electric in the open field, in a Barry Sanders way. White should have an amazing line with Carl, Dom, and Zylas. Blue has better skill position players with CP, Sudkin, Jaidin and Shocket running the ball. I can see Jaidin getting a couple picks and making an Odell Beckham catch. I am going with Blue. It should be noted that I have a deep bias towards blue High Seniors as they have 4 members of the "Ry Guys" league team earlier in the summer that was named after me. Jaidin, Shocket, Dakota, and Riley Bloch can do no wrong with me. I may offer them another ride up to the fields in our chartered bus again if they feel tired and they can borrow our team masseuse if they need it. If white wins, watch out for Michael Colon who is a sneaky awesome athlete, but doesn't get the pub because he doesn't have a dominant sport like Jaidin or Carl. If white wins, for the 2nd consecutive color war, coach Joe Connelly will have gone 0-3, then 3-0 in his last 3 games. The Blue Justice High Seniors, in 1993, did that as well led by Zack Wynn's dad, Steve Wynn, Rude Dog, Izzy Saintil, and the great Kevin Mahoney leading the way.

Afternoon

Song Night Practice

Song Night

I like white. They have a theme more conducive to song night. Also, they have Griffin Yas as a coach, who is super patient with the kids and seems to get them to focus. I think White wins by 12 points in song night. If they are smart, they will use Ace Eagerman at the piano. Matt Goroshko can play piano and guitar for blue.

If I am right, white wins color war by 52. I can live with that.

Day 5 results

I like to do this as it happens

Junior Softball - ended early as the game was frankly a debacle. Carter Lee had like 5 RBIs for Blue, in an easy win. Junior final split was 5-1 in favor of blue. Brody won his split vs. Seifer 4-2.

Intermediate Waterpolo - blue controlled the game. Spencer Hertz (a sneaky CW MVP candidate) was amazing and blue swept that division. Yuck. Blue Intermediates were 6-0, ouch. Braden Dubue was scouted poorly. That soccer game yesterday makes me sad. Coaches had a 3-3 split. I guess Keller had a great strategy of running pick and rolls in Waterpolo. Nobody had done it and it was supposedly amazing.

High Junior Newcomb - white won game 1 easily and it appeared to be an easy win for them. However (TM Margolin), Zack Wynn and AJ Valentine had the shade on their side in game 2 and won. Then in the last game, up to 6, they won 6-3. Blue won the HJ split 4-2. Great division, white should've won hoop and it would have been 3-3. As for the coaches Sean Karass, who was 0-6 last year, won his split vs. Raymond 4-2. Both did a nice job.

So, blue now has 3-0 before it gets super interesting.

Senior Basketball - Blue controlled most of the game and was up between 2-6 points the entire way. Liam Grabie was the leading scorer for blue with 12. But, the key guy was Tarlee Casey who had some Dr. J finger roll moves and got a lot of rebounds. Prince DePina had a tough first half for white, but was a beast in the 2nd half down low. With about 3 minutes left in the game, blue was up 4 and looked to be in command in this low scoring affair. HOWEVER (TM Snoopy), Eli Avergun made a layup and drilled a big 3 pointer to put white in the lead with about a minute left. Neither side could make a hoop the rest of the way and white escaped with a 2 point win. A monster win for white, who really just needs 2 wins today to probably secure things.

High Intermediate Soccer - This was Vogel vs. Parco. Vogel was double-teamed the entire game and the blue swarmed him every time he had the ball like a bee hive. Matty still had 4 goals, but blue had it tied with Spencer Parco leading the way with 20 minutes left. With 2 minutes left, Parco escaped the defense near midfield and made an easy shot to go up 5-4. WOW. White didn’t have any great chances after that and BLUE High Intermediates got their first win of color war. Truly amazing. Just shows that even someone as amazing as Matty Vogel loses sometimes.

Split is now 4-1 blue as I write this at halftime of the High Senior Football game. I do know the score but don’t want to say yet.

If blue wins this football game Color war is nearly tied. That would be incredible. If white wins, they take a 20 ish lead into song night. Either way it’s not over.

High Senior Football - Blue got an early lead. CP was hitting Myles DePina all over the place including a deep touchdown. The pivotal point of this game was a DePina touchdown catch, then blue kicked off and white did not bother picking up the kickoff. Jaidin Russell came flying in from nowhere and slid onto the ball for another touchdown. Blue controlled play the rest of the way. Mike Sudkin had 3 interceptions as well. For White, Torres did well. High Senior split went 4-2 blue and Kaplan won 4 games to Joe Connelly’s 2.

In the 36 Color War games, blue won 207 - 153 points.

Blue was down by 90 points 28 hours ago. They needed to win 12 games to have a realistic shot and they did exactly that. Just an amazing comeback today. If white wins color war, they can thank that Senior Basketball game which kept them from the sweep. If blue wins, I think the High Intermediate soccer game will go down as the big win that finished the comeback.

So, miraculously, the score of color war going into song night is...

Blue: 450.057 White: 449.95

Blue is up by 0.1
WOW

Song Night
The judges were Andy Chaban, from the mid/late 70s and 2 recent counselors, Jack Lesser and James Dunlea. I found out after color war that Jack and Dunlea knew the score of CW b/c of Facebook. Note to self, make sure the judges defriend West End Facebook until CW is over. Dunlea coached for the White Freedom, Blue Exchange and was co-head coach for Blue Order. Jack Lesser was the Head captain for Blue Frontier, then coached on Blue Exchange and Blue Order. They both were counselors at camp 2 years ago.

Entrance - Blue came in and (as predicted) did a little skit where they robbed a bank and the entire team entered and beat up some security guards. I suppose this is ok since the judge’s don’t see this every year. But, I do and it’s lame for the 12th straight year. They sang their songs very well. White did a more creative start with Alex Babb being hysterical. They didn’t beat anyone up. I liked their little skit better, but their song worse. Judges had it dead even. I’d have had 21-19 blue.

Song from the seats - white’s song was not good, but they did not mess it up at least. Blue seemed to do a cheer medley, which would have been way better, but their juniors made several errors during the song. Judges had a 3-point win for white and I agree.

Skit - Both sides, every year make the mistake of too many inside jokes about the summer that the judges will not understand. I just don’t understand why they do it? It’s as if they think the campers are the ones doing the scoring. I’d have a Steve, Bill, Ryan and maybe an Allan character. That’s it. Any other people are likely to not be known. Blue’s skit was not very good. We couldn’t understand what was going on and the kids were not loud enough. The skit had to do with camp’s budget and Allan taking over camp. The white’s skit was solid as Brandon Goldberg did a great job as Ice Cube, hosting a game show. Jonah Bloch was funny as Jose the Cook, although that may not have made sense to Judge Chaban. I loved the white’s 1st commercial break, as Ryan Torres and Ace Eagerman were hysterical. The 2nd commercial did not go well though. Julian Badger played me and had me beating up my kids, which was funny. I’d have had it 29-21 white. Judges only had white winning by less than a point.
Song from the floor - Blues 1 song was better than white's 2 songs. Sometimes less is more. I thought blue was going to win color war right there. Judges had blue winning it by around 3, I would agree with that.

Alma Mater - Blue used former camper-counselor Jeremy Zucker's song. Jeremy is a music star that everyone is proud of that he went to WEHC. Not sure what white used because my son, Wesley ran away onto the stage during the blue alma mater and I sat outside the rec hall with him until it was over. I heard white had an amazing solo by Brian Tong. White won the Alma Mater by about 1.5 points. I heard if anything, it should have been by more.

So, the judges had white winning song night by a little less than 3 points. Personally, I think it should've been by 6-8 points. Bill agreed that white won. So, it would be difficult for blue to claim that got robbed (pun intended).

Mess Hall announcement was tough. I hate to see the coaches and kids lose by so little. I especially feel bad for kids like Brady Bloch and Spencer Hertz, who won all 6 games and lost color war. Maybe we call that being "Coby Tippett'd" after Coby went 6-0 as a high senior captain and lost color war.

Other Thoughts
- No triple crown this year
- Next year Ryan Torres should be a beast in High Seniors along with Ben Grabie and Riley Bloch.
- Most of the coaches this year have coached twice. Raymond Wu and Joe Connelly are 2-0 as coaches.
- Mike Sudkin never lost a split in his 5+ years as a camper. In the last 3 years, Sudkin and Shocket went 6-0, 5-1 and 4-2 in their splits. Not bad.
- No coach did better than a 4-2 split.
- I think this color war was all about the Apaches. 21 seconds blue lost both in total. If both those go the other way, blue wins by 60.

See you next year!

The Mint has failed, their mission crashed and blew up
White plate, Hollywood baby, the fame is amazing
The fans say
"Mint is fact this way"

Oh, we're screaming fight white flight
Showtime was despite
All the things the blue tried to do

White plate, Hollywood baby, the fame is amazing
The fans say
"Mint is fact this way"

Oh, we're screaming fight white flight
Showtime was despite
All the things the blue tried to do

White plate, Hollywood baby, the fame is amazing
The fans say
"Mint is fact this way"

Cheer Medley

SANGUEH PARADISE — Lili Uli Vest
Money keeps coming in
White cast lose
New movie rolling in
White cast lose
And all of their coaches
Are short sized
Karam 0-11
Oh too soon?

White
A single color for a diamond
White
Well never ever give up trying
White
First class when we flying
White
Left man Brody crying
White

OUTSIDE TODAY — NBA Young Boy
Tryna hide from blue, cameras, we ain't got outside today
Winning every game, we got some let them play
We will show up in style, beating them in every race
Millions of fans, all up in our face

A LOT — 21 Savage
How much money we got? (a lot)
How many times they caught? (a lot)
How many people have doubted? (a lot)
Thought we had no shot? (a lot)
How many times we pat? (a lot)
How many times we shot? (a lot)
How many times we got? (a lot)
How many times they cried? (a lot)
Their coaches continue to let. (a lot)
No matter how hard they try.
They cannot defeat the White

ALL OF THE LIGHTS — Kanye West
So many lights around lately
Fast bright, they want to see clear
Yelling fight white fight baby
We know they need, wanna see celebrity
They wanna see all of the white
Straight holy, white movie start

All of the White
All of the White
Until the plaque is white, this ends tonight
All of the white

We know what they need, wanna see celebrity
They wanna see all of the white

HAVANISCA — Casio Cabello
Its showtime on the top
Through time and all the cameras shot, shot, shot
Signs over name to fans who come flock, flock, flock
Greatest all time on every block
Every inc should stick
Showtime is on the top

Gives You Hell - The All-Americans
Rejects

What's ruling that our bones
That's the worst five days
And it filled them up with rage

Mom's white, there's been flying
A private jet, L.A.
A lift that's full of fame

When you see our plaque, when you see our plaque, hope you say respect
To the team in red, to the Head that sold, to the blue that's dead

Heir couldn't stop the showtime
Papazzari came near and far
Just to see the star

Blue never stood a chance, no
We ended before the star

Do you know where you are?

And now we just dismissed blue
When they got caught, lots of crying

When you see our plaque, when you see our plaque, hope you say respect
To the team in red, to the Head that sold, to the blue that's dead

If you find a team, will crush their dreams, you may as well
Quick while you can, it's your best plan, we will not tell (We will not tell)

Now you'll never see, a Blue victory
You can taste from showtime, you lost to repeat
You can least say you tried, wipe the tears from your eyes
Heir got sad, sad look that they know so well

When you see our plaque, when you see our plaque, hope you say respect
To the team in red, to the Head that sold, to the blue that's dead

If you find a team, will crush their dreams, you may as well

Quit while you can, it's your best plan, we will not tell (We will not tell)

Buried in Detroit — Mike Posner
I'm a rapper and a brother
On my way to be a man
And it'll go to a lot of places
But I'm never gonna lose

New York to the Greetings
All around the bend
I may even end up in Paris
But I'm forever at West End

Just like my father, and my father's father too
Spend a lay down in the city
But baby that ain't a substitute
Dreaming like Long Road

All my Friends by my side
I may go to every city
But I'm forever at West End

I can't take my mind off it
I don't want summer's end
But I'll enjoy every minute
And be thankful for my friends

I will enjoy being with my family
Holidays and my friends
You see I love being back at home
But I'm forever at West End

Just like my father, and my father's father too
Spend a lay down in the city
But baby that ain't a substitute
Dreaming like Long Road

All my Friends by my side
I may go to every city
But I'm forever at West End

You know we 30,000,000
Live forever
Time at camp won't be long
In the end we will make some mistakes
But it will make a hell of a song

At West End, I met my best friends
And I know I got life

It's a long time through fall and winter
But I'm forever at

I know I'm heading back home
But I'm forever at

West End
This love - Maroon 5
White was so lost, they did not recognize
The grand heist pulled before their eyes
No clue we had robbed them blind
Got away, we hopped on a plane
Never to return again
Escaping to the dark

(Chorus)
This war is taking its toll on white
We said goodbye, and slipped right out the door
Showtime is breaking apart it seems
And they had no chance, guess the Blue Heist just wanted it more
They tried their best, chanting fight white fight
But stay losing every night
Hard to keep Heist satisfied
Kept riding sports cars, like it was a game
Living life drunk off of fame
Take the field and lose again
So we know...

(Chorus)
This war is taking its toll on white
We said goodbye, and slipped right out the door
Showtime is breaking apart it seems
And they had no chance, guess the Blue Heist just wanted it more
We'll steal their fancy things
Become richer than kings
Making off with the soul of white
Put pressure on their team
Breaking their every dream
Every ounce of blue dedicated to only crushing you

(Chorus)
This war is taking its toll on white
We said goodbye, and slipped right out the door
Showtime is breaking apart it seems
And they had no chance, guess the Blue Heist just wanted it more
Can't stop, addicted to the money
Blue Heist, so rich it ain't funny
Chose not a life of limitation
Steal all the loot with no hesitation
Adrenaline is what we live for
That thrill, that feeling that we stay for

The White Showtime could not defend
The Blue team stays dominating
West End

(Chorus)
This life we lead, these jobs we take
To be part of the smoothest team
Ever wonder if we, just can't lose
This life we lead, these jobs we take
To be part of the smoothest team
Tell us when you want to, join Blue
Showtime is bleeding in the spotlight
So slick, Blue's sneaking in the night
Money, the great communicator
Steal much cash and make it in the paper
Always slick with presentation
Backed by the Blue Heist's dedication
Planning the perfect operation
Worth our wait, the prize for preparation

(Chorus)
This life we lead, these jobs we take
To be part of the smoothest team
Ever wonder if we, just can't lose
This life we lead, these jobs we take
To be part of the smoothest team
Tell us when you want to, join the Blue
Wait a minute White's tapping out, they now lose
Go Blue go
Far easier than any war we ever knew
The plaques Blue
A few skilled men, working as a perfect crew
Right on queue
Far easier than any war we ever knew
The plaques Blue
Can't stop, addicted to the money
Blue Heist, so rich it ain't funny
Chose not a life of limitation
Steal all the loot with no hesitation
Adrenaline is what we live for
That thrill, that feeling that we stay for

The White Showtime could not defend
The Blue team stays dominating
West End

Hymn for the weekend -
Coldplay
Oh Showtime fell, from up, above
We just pulled a robbery
Now white is lost in history
We run the streets white take a seat
Blue Heist just cannot be beat
(x2)

Rich Girl - Daryl Hall & John Oates
We're the Blue Heist, yeah we oustedlassed White and it showed in the way that we played
Showtime relied on their fame and money
Now they got none, so ain't that funny
It's a shame White
Couldn't hang with us, 'cause we beat them each and every day
Showtime relied on their fame and money
Now they got none, so ain't that funny

Lose - Travis Scott
This war is over, Showtime out of service
Got nothing to lose, that should make white nervous
Got nothing to lose, blue plaque would be cool
Have you watched the news, Raymond's got no clue
Got nothing to lose
Hold up, wait, more to gain, more to take
Got nothing to lose
White will lose, to the blue, nothin' new (x2)

Robbery - Juice Wrld
We told white put the cash in the bag
And nobody gets hurt
Now we're running from the cops, we're too fast
So white showtime is gassed
They think their living the dream,
But we'll pass
We would rather be robbing
A blue plaque in the hall
And they cannot reverse it
(x2)

Armed and Dangerous - Juice Wrld
Heist's in town, Showtime goin' down
Clean em' out, they can't last a round
Run this
White looking some
So much,
even we forgot to count
