

FOURTH OF JULY WEEKEND BIG SUCCESS

This year the camp celebrated the Fourth of July Weekend in a "really big" way. To start off the gala celebration, on Sunday a gigantic "horrible parade" and "horrible contest" took place on the athletic field. The prize for the most horrible person in camp went to the sentimental favorite, Pedro Tiberi. The most original group were the three stooges, the funniest were Billy Vicari and his partner, the most attractive were Dick Cancelleri and his partner, and the prize for bunk participation went to 1B for having 100% in competition.

After the judging a number of tug-o-wars took place among the campers and counselors. In this competition, 2B beat 2A, 4A beat 3B, the three back bunks beat 4B, Gottlieb beat the Bancroft, and in two terrific fights the boys from 2A beat 1B, and 3A bested 1A. Later, in an all out effort against the counselors, the boys from 4B, the J.C.'s and the CIT's just barely managed to drag the senior counselors over the line. Then the younger counselors (in an attack of cockiness) decided to take on their elders without 4B. Needless to say, the Counselors pulled the J.C.'s and C.I.T.'s over the line in a matter of a few seconds.

The fireworks show was barely under way when the rain threatened to start, and so the fireworks were cancelled and everyone went into the Rec. Hall for an Indian council ring. A series of Indian sporting events took place, and some of the winners hooted home were: Bobby Epstein, Ed Miller, Jason Tobias, Henry Caron, Norm Becker, Pedro Tiberi, Yogi Bear, Dick Kessler, Larry Shopnick, Joe Bova, Bob Duccette, Hal Sneider, Alfred Newman, Ronnie Fuccillo, Zach Freedman, Ron Goldman, Wheelchair Mary, Ron Goldman, Sid Frank, Marc Sandofsky, John Ligums, Jackie Douyotas, Frank Marinella, Charlie Meirick, A. Alles, Charlie Bona, Bill Migliori, Dave Bloom, Howie Sherman, Barry Kessler, Dana Deeb, Dick Cancelleri, Dick Conner, Dick Hyman, Barry Schlösberg, Eliot Entin, Mike Conners, Frank Puopolo, Mark Skiffington, Bruce Feldman, Micky Mouse, and Hatchet Harry.

At the end of the council fire, we had a shocking experience as lightning struck the electrical power system in the camp. Our many thanks to George Mouradian and his efforts in restoring the power.

SKIT NIGHT

Frank Marinella

Our first skit night was a huge success. Under the direction of Lou Fuccillo, each bunk deposited 12 articles in a bag, and then a representative from each bungalow picked a bag and put together a skit from the different articles in the bag.

The winning bungalows were 4B and the Gottlieb. 4B's skit was modeled after the "Person to person" TV program. The skit well deserved the tie for first place. The Gottlieb put on a skit about counselors and campers, and were very successful at it.

APACHE RELAY

This year's Apache Relay was another big success. Held on the last day of the 4th of July weekend, the event was a real sparkler. One reason for the smoothness of the event was the excellent organization given the relay by Bob Gordon.

Congratulations are in order to the winning team, that one coached by Bernie Kaufman. A lesson can be learned from his victory, because Bernie's team was in last place, but with a lot of hustle they managed to win.

The second place team was coached by Harold Krivan and Dickie Hyman. The third place team was Jimmie Woon's. Other coaches were Barry Evzan, Jimmy Cronberg, and hustling Sam Bellistri.

The events of the relay were: 1) a tunnel ball relay with the entire team. 2) the #2 man must skip to the ballfield who must tag the #3 man who must hit a baseball a designated distance who must tag the #4 man who plays with #5 at the volleyball court and must complete six consecutive volleys and then tag the number #6 man who must swim one lap on his back with pajamas on and then tag the number #7 man who must run to the ballfield and tag at home plate and then tag the #8 man who must push a potato to first base and then tag #9 who runs to the pitchers mound and must hit the plate in the air with the softball, and then tag #10 and #11 who run a three-legged race to the council ring, and then tag #12 who runs to the rec. hall and sinks two consecutive foul shots and then tags the number 13 man who must run to the horse shoe pits and throw a shoe within its own Distance of the stake, then he must tag the number 14 and 15 men who piggy back to the archery court and then tag #16 who must shoot either a red or a gold and then he tags #17 who runs to the rec. hall and solves a riddle and then tag #18 and #19 who must run to the badminton court and

This year the West End House Camp is fortunate in having not only the largest staff it has ever employed, but also one of the best trained groups ever to be at this camp. It is with great pleasure, therefore, that as editor of the Echo I may introduce them to you.

Starting in bungalow 4B, we find Ralph Santoswasso. One of the most popular counselors to come from the West End, this year Ralph is in charge of the camp's athletic program.

In 4A we find a newcomer to the camp, Dick Lebow. Dick comes to us from New York, and is in charge of the archery program.

In 3B we find Brookline's pride, Bobby Gordon. In addition to bringing his lovable self, Bob also brought his younger brother Dave who is a member of the C.I.T. force.

Another newcomer to camp is Charlie Hennkens. Although he is a general Counselor, look for him to excel on the basketball court.

Paul Levy heads up bungalow 2B, and is returning to the W.E.H. for his eleventh consecutive year. Since the pay isn't very much, it must be either the good food or the lovable campers that keeps him here.

Charlie Ayvazian, the most horrible man in camp, is 2A's counselor. Charlie is one of the busiest men in camp numbering the camp's health officer among his many jobs.

In 1B we find Danny (Flashbulb) Leavitt. This year Danny is starting a ~~new~~ program to show campers the proper methods of taking and developing pictures.

Danny is also the co-editor of the Echo.

In 3A may be found the Editor of the Echo, Neal Andelman. Neal is from Brookline, but the town fathers recently asked him to leave for wearing crazy hats.

Laughable Izzy Kaplan heads the Bancroft. He may be found any night in the Rec. Hall after ten doing his exercises.

The man who so ably ran the 4th of July track meet is Al Garsys, Gottlieb's counselor.

Last of the regular counselors is the bearded one himself, Maynard Hyman. Aside from drawing the picture of Yogi Bear on the front cover, Maynard doesn't do much of anything.

Jerry Feld is in charge of the C.I.T. bungalow. Among his charges are: Steven Goldman, William Margolian, David Gordon, Ronald Marinella, Richard Samuels, Melvin Goldberg, Yogi Bear.

Jimmy Coots is again in charge of the waterfront, and is assisted this year by Bill Murphy.

This year's J.C. staff is composed of Sam Bellistri, Jimmy Wein, Jimmy Orenberg, Harold Krivan, Barry Eavzan, Dickie Hyman, and Bernie Kaufman.

Oh yes, there is just one more person I'd better mention, Lou Fuccillo, the Head Counselor. Lou is a real flip. He has some excellent events planned for the near future, and I'm sure the entire camp appreciates all the time he has put in towards making your stay in camp the best ever.

(Apache Relay Con't)

tag #20 and #21 who must run to ballfield and wheelbarrel from home to second and then tag #22 who must run to the council ring and whistle Yankee Doodle Dandy with crackers in mouth and then tag #23 who runs with a rock on a spoon to the basketball court and then the whole team participates in an under-over relay. After that we had a nice long general swim!

On Wednesday night the watermelon league under the direction of Bobby Gordon and Lou Fuccillo got off to a good start. The camp was divided into six different teams similar to those used in the Apache Relay. The winning teams were those coached by:

Charlie Hennekens
Al Garsys
Jerry Feld

Next Wednesday night, the teams play the second round of the round-robin.

TRACK MEET

The holiday also brought us a tremendous track meet in which the entire camp participated. Al Garsys who organized the meet will hold the rest of the events next Sunday. ## LAKE SABAGO TRIP

Ronnie Goldman

The two-weekers of the W. E.H. Camp were given a great treat by the Camp Committee of spending a wonderful time at Lake Sabago. While at the lake, they had a fine picnic and spent the rest of the afternoon swimming.

Counselor's Basketball Game

On Friday evening, the Counselors from the W.E.H. Camp played those from Robin Hood. The W.E.H. emerged the victors with a 78-69 win under their belts. Except for the first minute of the game when Robin Hood was leading 3-0, the West Enders were in command all the way. For our side, Jerry Feld had 20, Harold Krivan had 2, Charlie Hennekens had 17, Al Garsys scored 15, Bobby Gordon played 7 points worth, and Ralph Santoswosso had 17. As an extra treat, the campers were allowed to watch the first half of the game.
